You created for yourself a world filled with diversity
and blessed by your breath of life.
Rainbow colors bloom in spring,
summer breezes bring garden delight,
and now as Autumn comes our way
we see the work of your paintbrush upon every face and tree.

*Call to Worship

Leader: Throughout God’s world this day Christian churches are celebrating the Holy Communion as one family dining together in one room under one roof.

People: Our sisters and brothers in Africa, Europe, Latin America, Asia, Pacific Islands and all lands and countries join us in lifting the bread of life and the cup of salvation.

Leader: Neither powers nor principalities shall stop us nor deter our purpose, our desire to do good, our challenge to go forth as disciples into every town, village, and crossroads proclaiming the love of Christ for all creation.

People: In Christ’s love there is no East, no West, no North, no South, but only one Spirit of hope, love, and peace for all.

Leader: Let us praise Christ! May this holy meal empower each of us to be agents of hope and peace in a time of uncertainty and strife. t

People: The bread and wine are not for us alone, but are symbols of a universal message that surpasses the might of missiles and the walls of oppression.

Leader: May Christ bless the worldwide Communion of His Church this day!

People: Praise be to Christ our Creator, Redeemer, and Savior!

*Gospel Readings

John 3:33-35

<sup>33</sup> For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.” <sup>34</sup> They said to him, “Sir, give us this bread always.” <sup>35</sup> Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

John 6:48-51

48 I am the bread of life. 49 Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, yet they died. 50 But here is the bread that comes down from heaven, which anyone may eat and not die. 51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats this bread will live forever. This bread is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.”

Matthew 26:26-28

26 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take and eat; this is my body.” 27 Then he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, “Drink from it, all of you. 28 This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Leader: The word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God!

Special Music

Forever Young
Bob Dylan

by Brandon and Trisha Kett

[Written as a lullaby for his eldest son Jesse, born in 1966, Dylan's song relates a father's hopes that his child will remain strong and happy. It opens with the lines, “May God bless and keep you always / May your wishes all come true”, echoing the priestly blessing from the Book of Numbers, which has lines that begin: “May the Lord bless you and guard you / May the Lord make His face shed light upon you.”]

Children may now leave for Lego Sunday School with the teacher, Joan Culbertson, to the Nursery Room.

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

Prayer of Preparation for the World Communion Sunday

Jesus prayed that we might be one.

One in spirit. One in mission.

In union and communion with each other and with You.

Today, God, we confess fumbblings and failures in accomplishing unity, as we set aside yet another day to remind ourselves of the task.

On this World Communion Sunday, give us eyes to recognize your reflection in the eyes of Christians everywhere.

Give us a mind to accept and celebrate our differences.

Give us a heart big enough to love your children everywhere.

We thank you for setting a table with space enough for us all! Amen.

Institution of the Elements

Congregation (following the blessing of the Bread):

Blessed are you, O God of all creation. Through your goodness we have this bread to share, which earth has given and human hands have made. It will become for all the bread of life.

Congregation (following the blessing of the Cup):

Blessed are you, O God of all creation. Through your goodness we have this wine to share, fruit of the vine and work of human hands. It will become spiritual drink for all.

*Receiving of the Bread and the Cup

(The United Methodist Church practices open Communion. All are invited, including children, to come forward in the middle isle in two lines to receive the Communion. If you wish to receive Communion at your seat, please raise your hand or ask one of the ushers.)

Offering Our Gifts and Tithes

[The World Communion Special Sunday special offering envelopes are available in narthex. Without your generosity, this ministry could not be achieved! United Methodist local congregations gave $473,970 last year toward ministries funded by the World Communion Special Sunday special offering. Your gifts support racial and ethnic students in achieving their educational goals while also transforming communities. 50% percent of the offering provides scholarships for graduate students from the U.S. and other countries. 35% percent supports ethnic scholarships for undergraduate students. 15% percent funds in-service training programs for racial and ethnic persons.]

Leader: Let us respond to this word of grace and hope by the giving of our tithes and offerings, which support the varied ministries of the Watsonville First United Methodist Church, mission at home and throughout the world.
